++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A rather cloudy start but becoming increasingly bright.

Today:
A cloudy morning for many and a drizzly start for some. Cloud will then break during the day to give fine and dry conditions with sunny spells. Less warm than on Wednesday, but pleasant in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying dry with plenty of long clear spells but becoming cloudier along the English border by dawn. Feeling chilly with isolated grass frost possible for prone spots in the west. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Friday:
A fine and dry day with plenty of warm sunshine and light winds. Cloud arriving overnight with some light rain and drizzle. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Cloud breaking to leave scattered showers and sunshine on Saturday. Drier on Sunday and Monday with some isolated showers. Pleasantly warm, with light winds, though quite chilly in places overnight.
